

Cambridge Brewing Company supports Hurricane Katrina relief efforts with Mardi-Gras Benefit

Saturday, October 8th 2005 @ 8 p.m.

On Saturday October 8th beginning at 8 p.m., Cambridge Brewing Company will be throwing a Mardi-Gras Party to benefit the relief efforts in support of the victims of Hurricane Katrina. Chef Brian Roskow will be preparing special fare in the Cajun tradition such as Shrimp Etoufee, Oyster Po' boys, dirty rice and bananas foster (a true New Orleans classic.) Live Dixieland music will be presented by Andy Voelker's Moon Shiners, a local ensemble comprising some of Boston's brightest young jazz musicians. 25% of the proceeds of the evening's sales will be donated to support relief efforts for the victims of Hurricane Katrina, along with additional funds raised through our fun-for-all raffle. Prizes will include dinner for two at our next Brewer's Dinner on November 12, tickets to dirty dozen brass band, g.c. blue room, g.c. to pool, cbc gift pack

For more information, please call (617) 494-1994 or visit our website at <http://www.cambridgebrewingcompany.com>

Founded in 1989, the Cambridge Brewing Company is the oldest brewery-restaurant in the Boston area and one of the nation's first. As pioneers of new American beer styles, we offer a wide array of hand crafted original beers as well as our interpretation of classic world styles and experimental beers. Brewpubs such as ours have a unique culinary opportunity to continually pair new and interesting beer styles with innovative menu ideas. Our in-house artisan ales are paired with fresh and local ingredients on the menu, providing choices not found anywhere else in the local dining arena.

Only blocks from MIT and in the heart of high-tech and bio-tech Kendall Square, the Cambridge Brewing Company beckons to those in need of great food, great beer and fun times!